

CLASSIC
WIRE & CABLE

Aluminum Utility Cables

Aluminum utility cable is designed for overhead and underground power distribution across utility-grade applications. Classic Wire offers URD, service drop, and bare aluminum conductors that deliver the strength, conductivity, and durability needed for reliable power transmission and distribution.

Aluminum Utility Cables

Our Inventory

Inventory is stocked and ready to ship nationwide from our strategically located distribution centers. Value added services, including paralleling and custom cut-to-lengths, are available at each location to help our customers simplify installation and improve jobsite efficiency.

Count on Classic for Aluminum Utility Cable

UTILITY CABLE OFFERING

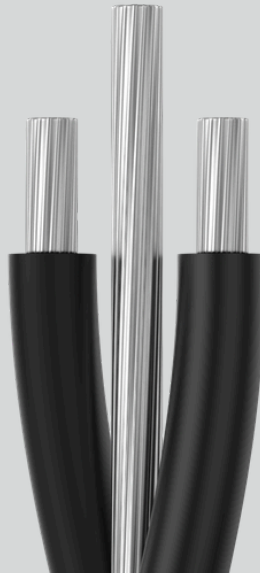

Underground Residential Distribution (URD)

Available in the following configurations: single, duplex, triplex (1350 and 8000), and quadruplex

Service Drop

Available in the following configurations: duplex, triplex, and quadruplex

Bare Aluminum Conductors

Available in the following configurations: AAC, AAAC, ACSR, ACSS, and aluminum tie wire.

WHY CLASSIC WIRE?

Engineered for Performance

Our utility cable is manufactured in accordance with applicable UL and ASTM standards, providing the durability, conductivity, and reliability demanded by utilities.

Consistent Stock Availability

Classic Wire's inventory is stocked nationwide, available in stock lengths or cut-to-order, and positioned for 1-2 day delivery across the country.

Trusted By Utilities

Classic Wire's aluminum utility cable is trusted by customers in the utility market nationwide for high-quality, readily available product.

