

SERVICE DROP CABLE

Service Drop Cable is an overhead multiple conductor neutral supported cable assembly designed to carry power from a pole mounted transformer or other secondary conductors to a building.

Configurations

Service Drop Cable is available in three configurations: Duplex, Triplex, Quadruplex

Neutral or Messenger

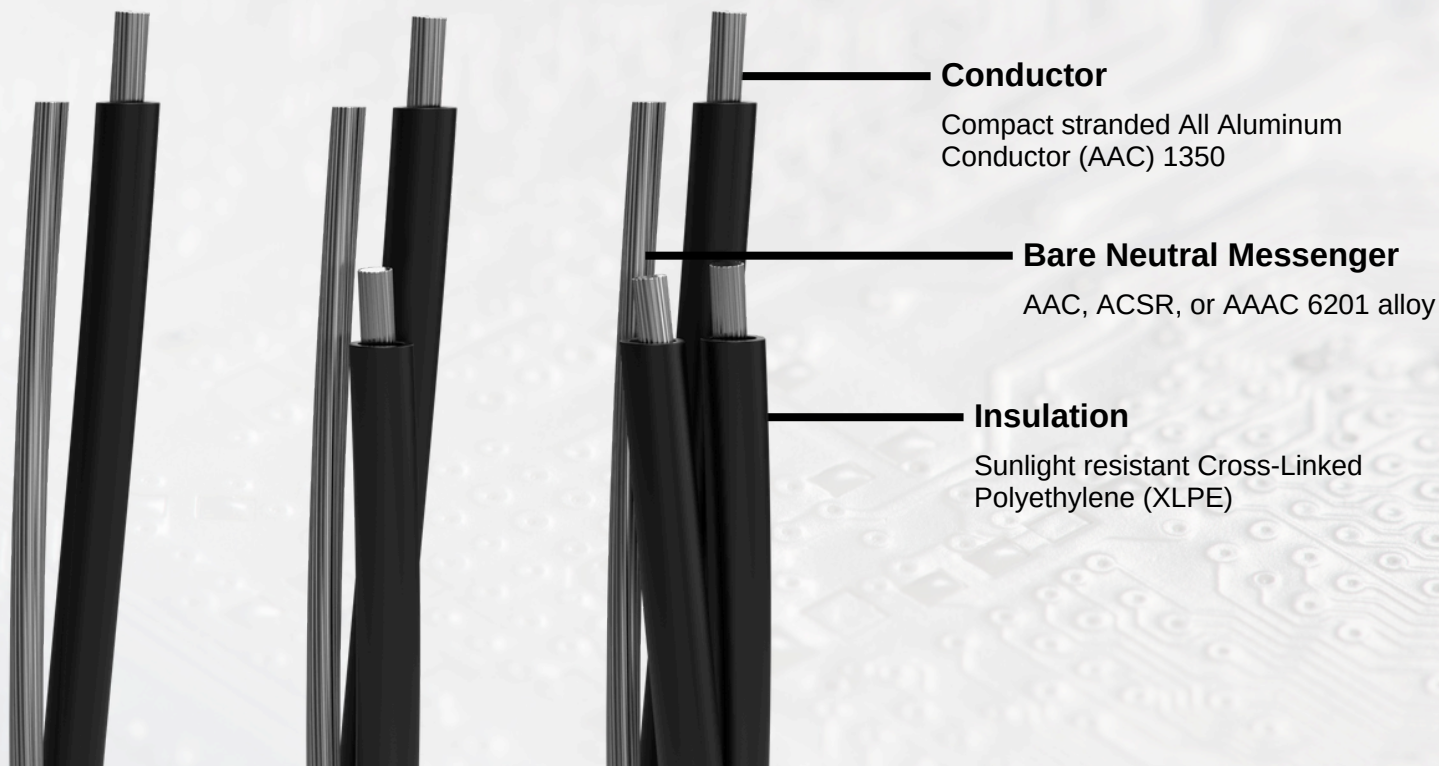

Available with AAC, ACSR or AAAC 6201

Rating

Service drop cables are rated 600 V or less and rated 90C dry or wet, sunlight resistant.

CONSTRUCTION

IN STOCK & READY TO SHIP NATIONWIDE!

Classic Wire's Service Drop cable is available nationwide across our three national distribution centers in Pennsylvania, Texas & California, as well as select rep warehouses.

Count on Classic to ship in days - not weeks!

sales@classicwire.com

www.classicwire.com

800-298-3500